

An. Code, sec. 296. 1914, ch. 786.

355. Any person who is engaged in the practice of osteopathy in this State at the time of the approval of this sub-title may deliver to the Secretary of the Board of Osteopathic Examiners, on or before June 15th, 1914, a written application for license to practice osteopathy, together with satisfactory proof that the applicant is not less than twenty-one years of age, is of good moral character, and has obtained a diploma from some legally incorporated reputable osteopathic college, requiring a course of study of personal attendance of at least four terms of five months each for graduation; and upon the payment by the applicant of a fee of ten dollars the Secretary of the said Board of Osteopathic Examiners shall issue to such applicant a license to practice osteopathy in this State, which license shall be subscribed by every member of the Board of Osteopathic Examiners, and shall have a like effect, for all purposes as a license issued after examination by the Board of Examiners, as hereinafter provided.

Every license to practice osteopathy, issued under the provisions of this sub-title, shall be signed by each member of the Board of Examiners, and shall have affixed to it, by the person authorized to affix the same, the seal of the State Board of Osteopathic Examiners. Before said license shall be issued, it shall be recorded in a book to be kept by the Secretary of the Board of Examiners; and the number of the books, and the page therein containing such recorded copy, shall be noted upon the face of said license. Said records shall, under proper restrictions for their safe-keeping be open to public inspection; provided, further, that anyone who has been in continuous practice of osteopathy for five years in some other State, and who graduated from a legally incorporated and reputable college of osteopathy, as provided for in this sub-title, at the discretion of the Board, may be granted a license, without further examination, after complying with all the other conditions provided for in the licensing of osteopaths in practice in this State on April 13, 1914.

See notes to sec. 357.

An. Code, sec. 297. 1914, ch. 786.

356. From and after April 13, 1914, any person not heretofore authorized to practice osteopathy in this State and desiring to enter upon such practice, may deliver to the Secretary of the State Board of Osteopathic Examiners, upon the payment of a fee of twenty-five dollars, a written application for examination, together with satisfactory proof that the applicant is more than twenty-one years of age, is of good moral character, has obtained a preliminary education, as hereinafter provided, and has received a diploma conferring the degree of doctor of osteopathy from some legally incorporated, reputable osteopathic college of the United States, or some foreign country, wherein course of instruction consists of at least three separate years of not less than nine months in each separate year. Applicants who receive their degree in osteopathy after the first day of January, Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and seventeen, must have pursued the study of osteopathy for four years, of at least eight months in each year, in four different calendar years, the work of each year having been suc-
